

2nd Annual Farm-to-School Chef Challenge

When: Tuesday, October 3rd, 2017

2:00-4:30pm prep and cook time

4:30-6:30pm judge time and public sampling

Where: Waterfront Elementary School, 95 Fourth Street, Buffalo

General Information:

- As part of our Farm-to-School program, Buffalo Public Schools is seeking input from local chefs to help engage and educate the community about local farms and the importance of eating fresh fruits and vegetables.
- The chef's recipes will be cooked, presented, and awarded during this back to school kick-off event.
- The winning recipe(s) will be highlighted on the December Harvest of the Month menu, which will feature root vegetables.

The Chef Challenge:

- Participating chefs will be challenged to prepare a complete school meal that meets the nutritional requirements as mandated by the USDA Child Nutrition Meal Requirements.
- Three chefs will be selected for the challenge.
- The recipe should yield 50 portions and be child-friendly.
- Buffalo Public Schools will provide all ingredients and trained students to assist in the kitchen.
- A meeting will be held on September 12th to review details and answer questions.
